

ISAAC DOES NOT FIGHT

Genesis 26:12-33

Genesis 26

¹²Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the LORD blessed him. ¹³The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy. ¹⁴He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵So all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth.

¹⁶Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us."

¹⁷So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there. ¹⁸Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

¹⁹Isaac's servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there. ²⁰But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek, because they disputed with him. ²¹Then they dug another well, but they quarreled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah. ²²He moved on from there and dug another well, and no one quarreled over it. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Now the LORD has given us room and we will flourish in the land."

²³From there he went up to Beersheba. ²⁴That night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham."

²⁵Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.

²⁶Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces. ²⁷Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?"

²⁸They answered, "We saw clearly that the LORD was with you; so we said, 'There ought to be a sworn agreement between us'—between us and you. Let us make a treaty with you ²⁹that you will do us no harm, just as we did not molest you but always treated you well and sent you away in peace. And now you are blessed by the LORD."

³⁰Isaac then made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. ³¹Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

³²That day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We've found water!" ³³He called it Shibah, and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.

CRAFT/ACTIVITY: WELLS

Students will construct a well using the pattern on the following page to remind them how Isaac chose to dig new wells instead of fighting over the old ones.

MATERIALS

1. One copy of the “well” pattern for each student printed on 67 lb. Cardstock
2. 67 lb. Cardstock
3. Clear tape
4. Glue
5. Popsicle sticks
6. Grass
7. Scissors
8. Crayons

DIRECTIONS

1. Pass out a copy of the “well” pattern to each student.
2. Instruct students to color the base of their “wells” if they choose to (the roof will be covered with grass).
3. Have students cut out the base and the roof by cutting on the solid lines.
4. Students should then fold on the dotted lines.
5. Have students glue the roof in both places as indicated on the pattern.
6. Have students glue the base together as indicated on the pattern.
7. Tape one Popsicle stick to either side of the roof and attach them to the base with tape.
8. Glue grass on the roof for decoration.

FOR DISCUSSION

As students are constructing their “wells”, remind them of the importance of living at peace with one another. Isaac was a prime example of this as he chose to build new wells over fighting for the old ones. God blesses his children for living at peace with one another.

A SPECIAL REPORT ON GENESIS 26:12-33

ISAAC DOES NOT FIGHT

Isaac planted many crops. The Lord blessed him and he became very rich. He had so many flocks, herds, and herdsmen that the Philistines became jealous.

The Philistines put dirt in the wells that the servants, of his father Abraham, had dug.

Isaac was asked by Abimelech to move away because he had become too powerful. Isaac obeyed.

Isaac dug open the wells that had been covered up. Isaac's servants also dug some new wells for fresh water. Other herdsmen argued with Isaac's herdsmen over who's water it was. Isaac did not fight over the wells. He moved away and dug a new well and no one argued with him.

Isaac then moved to Beersheba. The Lord appeared to Isaac and told him that he would be blessed and would have many descendants.

Isaac built an altar to the Lord. Abimelech came to speak with Isaac. Abimelech wanted to make a peace agreement with Isaac. Isaac agreed.

For more on this story, read Genesis 26:12-33 in your Bible.

QUESTIONS

1. Why were the Philistines jealous?
2. What did the Philistines do to the wells?
3. Did Isaac fight with the Philistines?
