

THE FAITH OF THE CENTURION

Luke 7:1-10

Luke 7

¹When Jesus had finished saying all this in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. ²There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. ³The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, "This man deserves to have you do this, ⁵because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." ⁶So Jesus went with them.

He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. ⁷That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

⁹When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel." ¹⁰Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

A SPECIAL REPORT ON LUKE 7:1-10

THE FAITH OF THE CENTURION

While Jesus was in Capernaum a centurion's servant was sick and about to die. The centurion heard about Jesus and sent some elders to him.

The elders asked Jesus to come and heal the servant. The elders pleaded with Jesus, "This man deserves to have you do this, because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." So Jesus went with them.

Jesus was not far from the house when the centurion sent some friends to give Jesus a message. The centurion's message was, "I did not consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed."

Jesus was impressed with the faith of the centurion. Jesus said to the crowd, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel."

When the friends of the centurion returned to the house, the servant was well!
