

GOD SPEAKS FROM MOUNT SINAI

Exodus 19:1-25

Exodus 19

¹In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt—on the very day—they came to the Desert of Sinai. ²After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

³Then Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain and said, “This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel: ⁴‘You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. ⁵Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, ⁶you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.”

⁷So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak. ⁸The people all responded together, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

⁹The LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always put their trust in you.” Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

¹⁰And the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes ¹¹and be ready by the third day, because on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. ¹²Put limits for the people around the mountain and tell them, ‘Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. ¹³He shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.’ Only when the ram’s horn sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain.”

¹⁴After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵Then he said to the people, “Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations.”

¹⁶On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast. Everyone in the camp trembled. ¹⁷Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. ¹⁸Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire. The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, the whole mountain trembled violently, ¹⁹and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

²⁰The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up ²¹and the LORD said to him, “Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish. ²²Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them.”

²³Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, ‘Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.’”

²⁴The LORD replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them.”

²⁵So Moses went down to the people and told them.

CRAFT/ACTIVITY: MOUNT SINAI

Students will make a model of Mount Sinai to remind them of how Moses climbed to the top of the mountain to hear from God.

MATERIALS

1. 67 Lb. White Cardstock
2. Mountain Pattern
3. Glue
4. Crayons, Markers, or Colored Pencils
5. Scissors
6. Dirt
7. Paper Plates
8. Cotton Balls
9. Tape

DIRECTIONS

1. Make a copy of the mountain pattern onto 67 lb. cardstock for each student.
2. Have students color the mountain brown and the lightning bolt yellow with a crayons, markers, or colored pencils.
3. Cut out the mountain and the lightning bolt on the solid black lines.
4. Bend the two straight edges of the mountain toward each other and tape them together in the shape of a cone.
5. Tape the mountain to a paper plate.
6. Glue cotton balls to the top of the mountain to represent clouds.
7. Glue the lightning bolt to the cotton balls.
8. Optional: Drizzle glue around the mountain and sprinkle dirt on it.

FOR DISCUSSION

As students are working on their mountains, remind them that God was using this experience on the mountain to mark his covenant with the Israelites. God promised that the Israelites would be God's treasured possession if they obeyed Him fully (Exodus 19:5). Loving God requires us to obey his commands. Explain the memory verse below to your students.

TIME NEEDED TO COMPLETE: Approximately 20 minutes

MEMORY VERSE

“This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome.” 1 John 5:3

GOD SPEAKS FROM MOUNT SINAI

Three months after escaping from Egypt, the Israelites camped out at the base of Mount Sinai.

Moses went up the mountain and the Lord spoke to him. The Lord told Moses to tell the people, "If you obey me, you will be my treasured possession; a holy nation."

So Moses went back down the mountain and spoke with the elders, or leaders, of the Israelites. They agreed to obey God.

Moses went up the mountain again. Moses told the Lord that the people would obey him.

The Lord told Moses to have the people wash their clothes and be ready in three days.

Three days later, there was thunder, lightning, a thick cloud, and smoke on Mount Sinai. A trumpet blast could be heard and the mountain began to shake. The trumpet blast got louder and louder.

The Lord was on the top of the mountain. The Lord told Moses to come up on the mountain. The Lord reminded Moses to tell the people not to climb the mountain or they would die. Only Aaron could be up on the top of the mountain with Moses and the Lord.

To find out more details about this story, read Numbers 21:4-9 in your Bible.

QUESTIONS

1. What happened three months after the Israelites left Egypt?
2. What did the Lord want the people to do?
3. Who did the Lord speak to?
4. Why do you think the Lord was covered in a thick cloud and smoke?
