

PAUL AND SILAS ARE IN JAIL

Acts 16:16-40

Acts 16

¹⁶Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved.” ¹⁸She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so troubled that he turned around and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!” At that moment the spirit left her.

¹⁹When the owners of the slave girl realized that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to face the authorities. ²⁰They brought them before the magistrates and said, “These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar ²¹by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans to accept or practice.”

²²The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten. ²³After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully. ²⁴Upon receiving such orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everybody’s chains came loose. ²⁷The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul shouted, “Don’t harm yourself! We are all here!”

²⁹The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰He then brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.”

³²Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. ³³At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were baptized. ³⁴The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.

³⁵When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: “Release those men.” ³⁶The jailer told Paul, “The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace.”

³⁷But Paul said to the officers: “They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out.”

³⁸The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed. ³⁹They came to appease them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city. ⁴⁰After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia’s house, where they met with the brothers and encouraged them. Then they left.

CRAFT/ACTIVITY: JAILS

Students will make a jail to remind them that Paul and Silas were put in jail.

MATERIALS

1. White 67 lb. Cardstock
2. Jail Pattern
3. Scissors
4. Glue
5. Tape
6. Crayons, Markers, or Colored Pencils
7. Flat Toothpicks

DIRECTIONS

1. Copy a jail pattern for each student onto 67 lb. cardstock.
2. Have students color the jail pattern with crayons, markers, or colored pencils.
3. Instruct students to cut out the jail on the black lines. Students will fold on the dotted lines.
4. Students will then put glue on the tab that says “glue” and assemble the jail.
5. Help students tape the roof on from the inside of the jail.
6. Glue flat toothpicks over the window opening over the dotted lines.

FOR DISCUSSION

As students are making their jails, remind them that the Lord was with them. Even in jail God used them to minister to the jailer. Help students realize that no matter what their circumstances may be, God can use them to further His kingdom. In this story the jailer and his family believe in Christ as the result of Paul and Silas’ stay in jail.

While in Philippi, Paul and Silas were arrested, beaten, and thrown in prison. Instead of moaning and groaning about their situation, they prayed and sang hymns to God. Suddenly there was a violent earthquake that shook the foundations of the prison. The prison doors flew open but none of the prisoners escaped. What was the jailor's reaction to this miracle?

Have You Ever Sinned?

The Bible teaches that we have all sinned and do not measure up to God's glory. It also teaches that the price for sin is death which separates us from God. But even though we are sinners, Christ died for us and paid the price for our sin. We just need to ask him to forgive us and receive his free gift of salvation. Just pray this prayer, with a sincere heart, and Jesus will forgive you of your sins. You will become a child of God and live with Him in heaven.

“Dear Jesus,

Please forgive me for the bad things that I have done. Please come into my heart and be my Lord and savior. In your name I pray, Amen.”

Paul and Silas could have escaped, but they didn't.

PRESCHOOL GAME

Supplies: A music source

This game is a perfect follow-up for the story of Paul and Silas in jail.

Designate two children to be Paul and Silas. Have the rest of the children make a prison by standing in a circle and holding hands. Have Paul and Silas stand inside the circle.

Say: In this Bible story, God used an earthquake to shake the jail where Paul and Silas were prisoners. Let's pretend that this circle is the jail house. When the music begins, Paul and Silas are going to go to each of the jail doors (between your hands) and knock on them. When the music stops, we'll say, "Rumble, rumble, rumble; shake, shake, shake. Here comes a mighty, mighty big earthquake!" Then let go of each other's hands, raise them into the air, and shake them. While everyone is shaking their hands in the air, Paul and Silas will walk around inside the circle and each trade places with someone. Then we will begin the game again with the new Paul and Silas.

Before beginning the game, the teacher should pretend to be Paul or Silas and demonstrate what they should do. Play until everyone has had a turn.
